MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1899

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—"Shore Acres" March 12th.
 —Harry Theis' whistling is sure to please all who hear him, and the playing of the Mandolins and Guitars bids fair to rival any music heard in Marietta for some time.

—A joint resolution has passed both houses of the Ohio Legislature providing for the admission of Luella Carr to the Athens State Hospital. Mrs. Carr was born and raised in this county. About two years ago she was married and went to Pennsylvania with her husband. Her husband afterward deserted her, and, brooding over his absence, her mind became affected. She was adjudged insane and sent to an asylum in Pennsylvania, but was taken out and brought home by her father. She became violent and the authorities were compelled to look after her. She was placed in the County Infirmary pending the passage of the resolution mentioned, which was necessary on account of her not having been a resident of the county for the year last past.

—Yesterday afternoon at the Relic Room was one of music. The West Side Mandolin Club gave several very pretty selections. A double quartette of ladies' voices was a new feature of the program. They sang well and were applauded as loudly as kid-en-cased hands could applaud. A carefully prepared and most enjoyable article on Wagner was written and read by Miss Oldham. The solo "Ben Bolt" was very sweetly sung.

—Mrs. Ward is the guest of Mrs. D. C. Larcomb, Fourth street.

—On April 1st the Woman's Home, which for two years past has been most capably and satisfactorily managed by Mrs. Nancy Dye, will lose the services of that lady because of her resignation. In her place will be Mrs. Nugent, a lady who all her life has lived in Marietta, and who is a thorough and efficient woman.

—Robert Mills showed us yesterday a piece of bark from a Sequoia tree, which is to be found in California. The tree from which this piece of bark was taken was over 300 feet high, and was over 30 feet in diameter. The bark was 28 inches in thickness, and is composed of fine, soft fibre.

—Marietta Glee, Mandolin and Guitar Club Concert tonight at 8:15. This hour is selected on account of the Gladden Lecture, so that people who wish can attend both entertainments, and also to accommodate late shoppers, as Tuesday eve is store night.

—Mrs. T. B. Bosworth entertained the Cecilia Club last evening at her home on Third street, and it was a most delightful event. A choice program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered by members of the Club. After the concert delightful refreshments were served. It was an evening long to be remembered by those in attendance.

—In Common Pleas Court Monday Magdalena Haddox was granted a divorce from her husband, Cincinnati P. Haddox, on the ground of willful absence.

—Frank J. McCulloch, of the State Board of Public Works, left over the T. & O. C. Ex. Monday for Columbus.

—E. Gienelli, of Canton, formerly of this city, is in the city on business.

—James H. Ray, of Gallipolis, has removed with his family to this city.

—Mr. Sam Freedman, of the C. C. C., is in New York on business.

—Miss Payne will play Wagner's Tanhauser March at the concert tonight. Her rendition of the piece will agreeably surprise her friends.

—F. W. Vincent, of the merchandising firm of Vincent & Gardner, of Vincent, has purchased the interest of his partner, E. F. Gardner, and assumed entire control of the store.

—W. B. Reader, of Oak Grove, Mich., is the guest of his uncle, Wm. Reader, Washington street.

—R. C. Underwood was a passenger for Columbus over the T. & O. C. Ex. Monday.

—Frank Whiting was tried in Common Pleas Court Monday on the charge of adultery. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and Judge Sibley sentenced him to pay a fine of $100 and costs and to be imprisoned in the county jail one day.

—Joel Henry, of Mulberry street, is seriously ill of grippe.

—Sergeant Wendelken has purchased a Sunol-bicycle from Hagan & Schad.

—Mrs. A. B. Little left Monday morning for Columbus on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. A. O. Flagg.

—A telegram received here at two o'clock Monday afternoon announced the death of Isaac Luchs, at Bellaire. Mr. Luchs was well known here and had many friends. He was a brother of M. S. and L. M. Luchs, who leave this morning to attend the funeral.

—Thirty male voices and twenty mandolins and guitars at the Glee Club Concert tonight.

—Prof. Otto's solo on the banjo will be a feature of the Glee Club Concert.

—Elizabeth, the six-year-old daughter of J. B. Lobdell, died Sunday night of rheumatism of the heart, after an illness of a few days. Her parents removed here recently from Bridgeport, Conn., and the little one died at the residence of George M. Woodbridge, Third street.

—The little child of A. W. Yerian, which has been ill for several weeks, is recovering rapidly.

—J. W. Pringle, manager of the O. I. Well Supply Company's store at Waverly, is now at Butler, Pa., preparing to move his family to Marietta. Zeke Bahman, of the Marietta store, is looking after the company's interests at Waverly in Mr. Pringle's absence.

—Will Ellis is expected home soon. He will travel in West Virginia for awhile.

—Mrs. G. R. Woodruff and Mrs. G. R. Rossiter are expected to come to Marietta soon, and will be the guests of Mrs. Slack, Fourth street.

—Attorneys are still at work making the deeds and abstracts of title of the lots composing the site of the new boiler works plant, and as soon as the work is finished Mr. Leidecker and associates will be here to let the contract. A number of bids were made on the work of erecting the buildings, but they will not be opened for several days.

—Chan Lung, the wealthy Chinaman who has been here looking after his oil interests, left at 11:25 Monday night for his home in New York City.

—C. A. Weed, of Amesville, Athens county, was swindled out of $48 in a Parkersburg gambling dive and is now in jail for the offense.

—A Miss Stevens, one of the frail attaches of the Columbia theatre at Sistersville, attempted suicide Saturday night on account of ill treatment by her lover. She took morphine, but failed in her attempt.

—R. L. Rudy, instructor at the Business College, Mr. Charles James, Miss Blanche Dye and Miss Lillian Baker have recently purchased Waverly bicycles from F. E. Wittling.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Of the Big Gas Well Fire Near Mannington.

Mannington, March 7.—Samuel Ankers, of Foxburg, Pa., the second victim of the Hockinberry gas well explosion, died last evening about six o'clock.

He had inhaled the flames, and got worse early in the morning. He vomited flesh and putrid matter before death relieved him.

Drs. Warden and Hamilton went up yesterday afternoon and redressed four of the men and report that there is not much danger of the others unless it might be McGraw. He is badly burned about the mouth and scalp.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Styer's Drug Store.

A Lucky Oil Man.

Ellenboro, W. Va. March 7.—John Markey, of West Union, who paid $2,200 for one-sixteenth interest in the weekly oil lease, on which is located the 6000-barrel well, has, it is reported, been offered $30,000 for his bargain. This well is the largest producing "Big Injun" sand well ever struck in the United States.

BANKRUPTCY

—of the physical being is the result of drawing incessantly upon the reserve capital of nature's forces. The wear, tear and strain of modern life are concentrated upon the nervous system. The young men of our day become suffering from nervous debility or exhaustion, nervous prostration or weakness. This may be the result of too much mental worry and excitement, or the result of bad practices and excesses, or pernicious habits, contracted in youth, through ignorance. They feel irritable, weak and nervous with such distressing symptoms as backache, dizziness, shooting pains in head or chest, sometimes indigestion. The middle-aged men, as well, suffer from exhaustion, loss of manly power, low spirits, impaired memory, and many derangements of mind and body. The ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked business man attempts to find rest in bed.

The physicians and specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute devote their best energies to reclaiming and restoring such unfortunate to health and happiness. They have written a book of 168 pages, treating of these maladies and setting forth a rational means of home-treatment for their cure. It is sent securely sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of 10 cents for postage.
